TRADITION SUPERCEDED BY CHRIST'S LAW.

Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths:

But I say unto you, Swear not at all; neither by heaven; for it is God's throne.

Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool; neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King. Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black.

But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay; for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil.

SHOP AND RAILROAD NEWS

MISS BURG ENTERTAINS SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

Miss Marguerite Burg, No. 807 Fourth street, who is teacher of the Blue Class of the Methodist Sunday school entertained twelve members of the class at a Halloween party at her home Saturday evening. The home was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and other Halloween symbols. Miss Marguerite West was awarded the prize for the most charming costume. Many amusing games were played among the most interesting being a hunt for their fortunes. A large pumpkin was placed in plain view with many strings attached to it and leading throughout the different rooms which the guests followed and found their fortunes at the end of the string. At the close of the evening a delicious one course luncheon was served.

Mrs. Della Brite, teacher at the Wheeler school northeast of town, is in Cassville to attend the Barry county teachers meeting.

Sam Pick left Thursday for St. Louis to enter the government hospital for treatment for ulcers of the stomach.

Mrs. Joe Nelson and little son Joe, Jr., of Joplin, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. O. Barker and family, went to Purdy to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Carlin, Friday morning.
